SOME RECENT ACQUISITIONS

Architectural schools in North America. Washington, D.C.: Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, 1973.

-Each listing has a breakdown of programs offered - at what level, different degree programs, e.g. urban planning; length of program etc.

Canadian university correspondence courses, 1973-74. Saskatoon: University of Saskatchewan, The Department of Correspondence Courses, Canadian Association of Departments of Extension and Summer School, 1973.

-Has a subject breakdown, e.g. which Canadian universities have correspondence courses in Chinese? (Saskatchewan). All courses are for university credit.

Directory of further education, 1972. London, England: Cornmarket Press, 1972.

-Contains a detailed subject breakdown. This edition contains more information about each college, or polytechnic.

Odgers, Ruth F. and Wenberg, Burness G., eds.

Introduction to Health Professions. Saint Louis, Missouri: C.V. Mosby, 1972.

-This book covers many fields of medical work, from dentistry to veterinary medicine. There is a helpful chart showing the length of training required for approximately 100 health careers. The chapter on Emerging Health Professions covers areas which have little published information, so far.

Opportunities for education in urban and regional affairs at Canadian universities and community colleges, 1973-74. Ollie Crain, ed. 4th ed. Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, Policy Planning Division, n.d.

-All the areas where courses in urban and regional affairs are offered, are listed within the listing for each university. For example, 6 faculties or departments at SGWU offer graduate or undergraduate degrees related to this area.

Study of art in France. Ottawa: Cultural Services of the French Embassy, 1972.

-This booklet lists schools of Art, Decoration, Fashion, Handicrafts, Religious Art, Photography, and other related subjects. Also included is information on customs regulations, student visas, expenses, etc.

GUIDANCE INFORMATION CENTERH-440-1JOB HUNTING?

For those of you who are job-hunting, the Guidance Information Center is the place to start. We have books and pamphlets containing information on how to plan a job hunt, on how to handle interviews and how to prepare resumes. Directories of employers and files on individual companies are also located here.

Looking for a part-time summer job? We have books listing organizations and sources that could be helpful in securing these types of jobs.

So come on in and see us in H-440-1.

AWARDS

Don't forget that many financial awards for graduate study have deadlines in December. Here in the Guidance Information Center we have current information on awards. When possible we have application forms to hand out.
